

MTh in Theology

In Partnership with Cardiff University

ABOUT ST PADARN'S INSTITUTE

St Padarn's is the training arm of the Church in Wales. It seeks to play its part in equipping and empowering God's people across the world to communicate God's transformative love.

WHY STUDY THE MTH IN THEOLOGY?

On the MTh in Theology, you will explore and engage with the teachings and traditions of the Christian Church through a balance of academic study and practical application. Choose a pathway (Biblical Studies, Christian Doctrine, Practical Theology, or Children, Young People & Families) to focus your studies and choose modules that suit your interests or background.

Whatever your background, the programme will equip you with with tools for analytical reflection and evaluation of issues and situations that may arise in your present or future workplace. For some students that workplace will be overtly Christian, for others it will not – this programme caters for both contexts.

WHAT MAKES THIS DEGREE DISTINCTIVE?

Our programme is contemporary and engaging: The MTh is rooted in today's world, recognising that our faith comes alive when it is applied to our everyday lives, not least when we engage with contemporary thinking, culture and scholarship.

Our programme is flexible and convenient: The degree is geared towards your needs. The modules are taught through small group tutorials, assuring personal attention from the academic staff, and the timetable aims not to overburden individuals.

Our programme tutors are respected and ecumenical: The MTh draws on internationally-recognised expertise. Your tutors are experts in various theological and biblical fields and their academic work is renowned to be sensitive to current issues in ministry and in the public eye. They include:

Revd Canon Dr Trystan Owain Hughes

Revd Dr Rosa Hunt

Dr John Wilks

Revd Dr Mark Griffiths

Revd Dr Ed Kaneen

Revd Dr Stephen Roberts

Dr Charlie Shepherd

Revd Dr Craig Gardiner

HOW IS THE COURSE TAUGHT?

The MTh Theology is a Cardiff University postgraduate degree delivered through St Padarn's Institute and the South Wales Baptist College. This flexible programme has been designed with the busy life of those working in mind, both lay people and ordained ministers. Teaching for the MTh in Theology normally taking place about one or two days a month during term time. You can also choose whether to undertake the course on a part-time or full-time basis<sup>1</sup>.

WHAT QUALIFICATIONS ARE REQUIRED?

Our Theology programme is suitable for graduates in Theology or Religious Studies, although significant experience of ministry can also be taken into account. While it is primarily aimed at people engaged in Christian ministry (lay or ordained), members of some other professional groups (e.g. medicine, social work, teaching) will find it equally valuable, as will individuals who have undertaken an undergraduate degree in theology or religious studies and want to further their learning.

WHAT MODULES ARE OFFERED?

To complete this Master's programme you will need to take a total of 180 credits. This includes six taught modules (120 credits), combining core and optional modules designed specifically for your pathway, and on successful completion of this taught stage you will progress to your dissertation (60 credits).
