

29th Regional Southwest and Wales Postgraduate Religion and Theology Conference 2024

9:30	Welcome and introduction: Prof Jeremy Duff (St Padarn's)
10:00	Mia Jacobs (Bristol): Exploring a Gynocentric Theology Jeremy Heuslein (Ripon College, Cuddeson/Church in Wales): Towards a Sacramental Materialism	Suh-Ho Kim Soho (Bristol): Trans-Contextualism in Medieval East Asian Buddhist Commentaries: A Socio-Textual Discourse Analysis of Commentary Genre, 'Compendia (chao, 抄; 鈔)' Omer F Kalinturk (Exeter): Nazaret Daghavarian and the Paulicians: A Late Ottoman Contribution to Heresiorography
11:00	Coffee break
11:30	Allen Hamlin (Bristol): Profile of a Divine Agent: Joshua's Commissioning for the Land Gain Campaign Adam Hardie (Exeter): Imitation and Jesus' Stilling of the Storm in Mark's Gospel	Ellen Lesser (Exeter): Process Pansyntheism as a Metaphysical Framework for Ecotheology Jennifer Stazicker (Exeter): An exploration of the ecotheological nature of Philip Hefner's created co-creator theory
12:30	Lunch
14:00	Charlie Clark (Bristol): Popular Magic and Holy Writ - a Study of Materia Magica and the Formation of Rabbinic and Syriac Christian Texts Sam Norton (Bristol): "Bringing balance to the force": McGilchrist, brain hemispheres and the via negativa	Cass Thomas (St Padarn's): Fruit that will last: what affects the flourishing and sustaining of fresh expressions of church in the rural Church in Wales? Keith Moore (St Padarn's): Too close to God? Reading 2 Samuel 6
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	Plenary session. Dr Elizabeth Corsar (St Padarn's): The Imitable Ethic of Self-Sacrificial Love: Johannine and Markan Ethics
17:00	Wine reception
18:00	Dinner	