2. Introduction

St Padarn's is committed to ensuring that our community is an inclusive environment in which our learners, staff and contributors to our programmes can flourish, free from prejudice and discrimination. Our aim is to have a community where everyone can contribute and be appreciated for who they are. We believe diversity enriches the whole community.

All our programmes are designed to deepen the Christian faith. Therefore, the contents of these programmes will prioritise the Christian faith, and its values, which includes recognising that each individual is made in God's image and as such should be treated with equality, respect, dignity, and acceptance.

Our approach builds on the Equality Act 2010, which provides a legal framework to protect people from discrimination.

3. Scope

This policy is applicable to all staff, learners, programme contributors, contractors and any other person associated with the functions of St Padarn's.

This policy is based on the Representative Body of the Church in Wales Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion commitment to:

Equality:

We are dedicated to treating everyone with respect and dignity, providing equal opportunities for employment, development, and advancement. Discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, will not be tolerated. There are some roles for which it is appropriate to have a faith-based occupational requirement. The vast majority of the Representative Body's employed roles are open to those of all faiths and none.

Diversity:

We recognise and celebrate the unique backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives that each individual brings to our organisation. Embracing diversity enriches our workplace and enhances our ability to innovate.

Inclusion:

Inclusion is at the core of our values. We strive to create an environment where everyone feels welcome, valued, and heard. We encourage open dialogue, collaboration, and the sharing of ideas to build a workplace that reflects the diverse world we live in.
